We will start by reviewing these images over a coffee Here’s another challenge if the weather permits....more a bit of fun than serious photography, but you’ll need to think outside the box

		Bring one object with you (anything you like but keep it secret) Take that one object out with you and place it in every shot you take You will have a time limit of 1 hour send me your best 5 shots
Thurs 27th February	Hexham Abbey	Ancient Glory We have permission to photograph as a group in Hexham Abbey. Tripods with rubber feet are allowed. This is an opportunity to shoot ancient architectural treasures and beautiful stained glass. Hexham Abbey is home to a wealth of artifacts. From the Anglo-Saxon crypt to the tombstone of a Roman soldier, from exquisite sculpture to an ancient bishop's seat, from a medieval painted screen to a set of time-worn steps... Take time to capture the peaceful atmosphere. We will meet in the refectory café at 11.30am Send me your best 5 shots
Fri 13th March	Saltaire Village and Salts Mill Nr Bradford, West Yorkshire 95 miles 2 hours 15 mins	Capture World Heritage Named after Sir Titus Salt who built a textile mill, known as Salts Mill (1853) and this village on the River Aire. Salts. Saltaire was designated a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2001. The village is a step back in time with back to back houses and some grand public buildings. There is a park and river walks. There are good historical and art exhibitions in the Mill (David Hockney exhibits here). We will meet in 'Don't Tell Titus' at 10.30 – 11am address: 6 – 7 Victoria Road, BD18 3LA Morning and afternoon – leave Consett at 7.45 am Salts Mill and the village are on opposite sides of rail line. You can't easily drive from one to the other, I've always been when it's quiet and parked in village but there is lots of parking at the Mill car park. I suggest you have a look on line before hand. We are meeting in the village For Salts Mill car park Please set your Sat Nav to BD17 7EF. When it tells you you've reached your destination, keep going along Salts Mill Road following the brown signs - you'll pass a big red brick chimney on your left as you cross the canal and The Waterfront, an office building, on your right, then you'll see the mill at the end of the road. Proceed through the gates into the free Salts visitors car park on the right. For the village try..
